

The Marsh Academy Year 11 Resources to help you prepare for BTEC Health and Social Care

 Complete this research task. Carry out research to find out what about each of the following health care professionals: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Doctor• Nurse• Physiotherapist• Occupational Therapist• Speech and Language Therapist• Social Worker• Healthcare Assistant Investigate their roles and responsibilities and the qualifications you need for each job. Some helpful sites to begin with are: The NHS Prospects	 Complete this research task. Conduct some research into the following areas; Verbal communication skills: Pace, tone and pitch, effective questioning, active listening, non-discriminatory language, avoiding slang and jargon and age appropriate language. Non-verbal communication skills: Body language, eye contact, touch, gestures and proximity. Special methods of communication: Makaton, British Sign Language, Braille, deafblind language. Technological aids- Dynavox, lightwriters and voice activated software.	 Watch this BBC Documentary. Feral children How can a hearing impairment in children affect their language development? Wild Child: The story of feral children YouTube	 Complete this course. Aimed at social care professionals and people receiving social care support, this e-learning course explores personalisation. It will help you to understand personalisation and to explore what you can do to make personalisation happen. Personalisation: E-Introduction Course E-Learning Courses Starts anytime from now
 Read this article Which groups of people are more likely to be living in poverty, what areas of the UK have the highest poverty rates? After reading this article consider what impact does poverty have on a person's physical, intellectual, emotional, intellectual, and social well-being. New study finds 4.5 million UK children living in poverty. The Guardian	 Complete this research task. Carry out research to find out about the following additional needs a service user of a health and social care setting may have: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Down's Syndrome• Autistic-spectrum disorders (ASD)• Huntington's Disease• Dementia and Alzheimer's disease Explain each additional need, how they are diagnosed and any health and social care workers who may be involved in their care and development.	 Complete this course. Improve working relationships between disabled people and personal assistants. Introduction to Nursing: Bioscience, Psychology, and Sociology University of East Anglia Starts anytime from now	 Complete this course. Psychology and Mental health: Beyond Nature and Nurture Explore some of the current challenges and debates in the area of diagnosis and treatment. You will gain new perspectives on the "nature vs nurture" debate and understand how we are affected by life experiences. Psychology and Mental Health: Beyond Nature and Nurture University of Liverpool
 Watch this BBC News Programme The effects of ageing. Can ageing be delayed, stopped or even reversed? Can ageing be delayed, stopped or even reversed? BBC News	 Watch this Film: Inside I'm dancing This film focuses on adults with physical disabilities Inside I'm dancing Film	 Watch this Documentary. Letting go. Letting Go follows Rosa Monckton and her daughter Domenica, who has Down's syndrome, as she leaves school and takes her first steps into the adult world. Letting Go YouTube	 Complete this course. Explore the diverse skills and knowledge required to be a nurse and find out where a career in nursing could take you. The Role of Personal Assistants in Disability Support University of East Anglia